RE: 2013-2014 Contribution Limits

The following contribution limits¹ apply for the 2013-2014 election cycle:

FROM:	TO: Senate Candidate	House Candidate	National Party Committee	State Party Committee	PAC
Individual	$2,600 per election	$2,600 per election	$32,400 per calendar year	$10,000 per calendar year	$5,000 per calendar year
Multicandidate PAC	$5,000 per election	$5,000 per election	$15,000 per calendar year	$5,000 per calendar year	$5,000 per calendar year
Non-Multicandidate PAC ²	$2,600 per election	$2,600 per election	$32,400 per calendar year	$10,000 per calendar year	$5,000 per calendar year
National Party Committee	$45,400 combined ³	$5,000 per election	Unlimited	Unlimited	$5,000 per calendar year
State Party Committee	$5,000 per election	$5,000 per election	Unlimited	Unlimited	$5,000 per calendar year
Non-individual "person" (e.g., Tribes, partnerships)	$2,600 per election	$2,600 per election	$32,400 per calendar year	$10,000 per calendar year	$5,000 per calendar year

¹ Although individual contributions were previously subject to an aggregate limit for the two-year election cycle, these limits were struck down by the Supreme Court's decision in McCutcheon v. FEC.

² A candidate's authorized committee may only contribute $2,000 (not $2,600) per election to another candidate's authorized committee, and may make unlimited transfers to party committees.

³ This limit is shared by the DNC and DSCC.
